

Underdevelopment

In common meaning, underdevelopment of a country stand for its poverty. But economist take a different view, according to them, underdevelopment refers to a situation where a country is not making full use of its potential resources. Its natural and human resources are not properly used and exploited. In this sense of term, we can say that Afghanistan is an underdeveloped country. Afghanistan has huge natural and human resources which, if utilized fully, can make us prosperous and rich.
