Generational Equity Debate:

The Generational Equity Debate John Williamson, John B. Williamson, Diane M. Watts-Roy, Eric R. Kingson, 1999 Contains 13 essays which discuss social security and Medicare policies and the equitable distribution of social benefits across generations Debates the existence of a crisis and examines proposals for the reform of social security financing Ageism Tay McNamara, John Williamson, 2019-05-24 Ageism Past Present and Future presents perspectives for understanding ageism and puts ageism in the context of specific social institutions McNamara and Williamson uniquely provide a number of complementary ways to understand ageism including social and psychological theories of ageism economic development ageism as frame or lens and ageism at the intersection of various social categories such as gender and race They then put ageism in the context of mass media health care employment and public policy This short text is an ideal addition to courses on sociology of aging social policy and social problems Aging Harry R. Moody, Jennifer R. Sasser, 2020-07-16 Winner of the 2022 Textbook Academic Authors Association's The McGuffey Longevity Award Aging Concepts and Controversies is structured to encourage a style of teaching and learning that goes beyond conveying facts and methods This innovative text focuses on controversies and questions rather than on assimilating facts or creating a single correct view about aging or older people Drawing on their extensive expertise authors Harry R. Moody and Jennifer R. Sasser first provide an overview of aging in three domains aging over the life course health care and socioeconomic trends Each section then includes data and conceptual frameworks helping students to make sense of the controversies and understand their origin engage in critical thinking and develop their own views The Tenth Edition of this hallmark textbook includes amplified discussions focused on differences diversity structural inequalities and inclusion as well as contemporary issues including climate change and immigration Included with this title The password protected Instructor Resource Site formally known as SAGE Edge offers access to all text specific resources including a test bank and editable chapter specific PowerPoint slides Aging, Society, and the Life Course, Fifth Edition Leslie A. Morgan, PhD, Suzanne Kunkel, 2015-07-20 Print CourseSmart The Encyclopedia of Aging George L. Maddox, 2013-12-11 Comprehensive multidisciplinary encyclopedia dealing with aging processes and older adults Intended for the educated inquirer who needs a brief authoritative introduction to key topics and issues in aging Signed entries contain cross references Contains lengthy bibliography General index Ageing: Key debates Susan A. McDaniel, 2008 Network News, 1988 Social Security Daniel Béland, 2005 Compact timely well researched and balanced this institutional history of Social Security's seventy years shows how the past still influences ongoing reform debates helping the reader both to understand and evaluate the current partisan arguments on both sides A Study of the Opinions of Michigan Residents Toward Government Benefits for Older Adults Sally Anne Rypkema, 2001 Futures Research Quarterly, 1991 Diversity in an Aging America: Social and human relations and the aging of minority populations, 1990 Ethics in an Aging Society Harry R. Moody, 1992 Moody examines both the clinical and the policy issues that center on aging paying special attention to the ethical problems associated with Alzheimer's disease and the issue of rational suicide for reasons of age He also focuses on the rights of patients in long term care and on the question of justice between generations

Critical Perspectives on Ageing Societies Miriam Bernard, Thomas Scharf, 2007 This important new book brings together some of the best known international scholars working within a critical gerontology perspective Together they review and update our understanding of how the field has developed over the last twenty five years and through the lens of passionate scholarship provide a challenging assessment of the complex practical and ethical issues facing older people and those who conduct research on ageing in the 21st century The contributions extend the critical gerontological approach conceptually methodologically and practically They offer close and scholarly analysis of policies affecting the lives of older people and provide insights into why research is done in particular ways Special attention is paid to feminist contributions and new approaches to working in partnership with older people age discrimination and ageism the impact of neo liberal policies and the passage of various human rights instruments the re medicalisation of later life the participation of older people in research and justice between generations The editors and contributors offer suggestions for promoting change and an exciting set of visions and perspectives for the renewal and development of critical gerontology in the years ahead Critical Perspectives on Ageing Societies will be a valuable resource for all students academics and practitioners interested in ageing and the life course
