Living into Community Christine D. Pohl, 2011-12-20 Every church every organization has experienced them betrayal deception grumbling envy exclusion They make life together difficult and prevent congregations from developing the skills virtues and practices they need to nurture sturdy life giving communities In Living into Community Christine Pohl explores four specific Christian practices gratitude promise keeping truth telling and hospitality that can counteract those destructive forces and help churches and individuals build and sustain vibrant communities Drawing on a wealth of personal and professional experience and interacting with the biblical historical and moral traditions Pohl thoughtfully discusses each practice including its possible complications and deformations and points to how these essential practices can be better cultivated within communities and families

Grace Matters Joseph Huss, 2018-02 Grace is such an important topic and the key to understanding the Scriptures It is the foundation to every part of our lives Despite its importance most people even in churches don't understand its overarching influence They miss how sufficient grace is in salvation security and sanctification Grace Matters Applying Grace to Life is a fabulous resource that expounds on Biblical grace grace that is truly amazing It reveals both the importance and sufficiency of grace and also explains how you can apply it in your life Once you grasp the wonders of God's grace you will be able to share just how much Grace Matters Reassembling Pain,

Reassembling the Reading of Fiction Eric Baudner, 2021-01-17 The present book deals with Sarah Kane's dramatic text Cleansed to show a specific negotiation of violence pain life and death one that is not necessarily causal or dichotomous Instead a new mode of reading based on Bruno Latour's take on Actor Network Theory helps to make fictional worlds simultaneously intelligible in a mediate and in an immediate way This results in an unprecedented understanding of how language can influence and modify ontological configurations Eventually this allows for a re-evaluation of political problems that occur in the 20th and 21st century Practicing the Kingdom Justin Bronson Barringer, Maria Russell

Kenney, 2022-02-07 Throughout her academic career Christine D Pohl has helped the church rediscover practices that used to be central to its life like hospitality community and friendship Perhaps best known for her groundbreaking Making Room Recovering Hospitality as a Christian Tradition she has also contributed significantly to discussions on Christian community feminism and the academy and the practice of friendship Yet behind this lies a lifetime of lived theology that informs her life and her work both inside and outside the academy Containing biblical systematic and moral theology these essays are scriptural and liturgical multidisciplinary and missional Several of them could be described as offering essays of lived theology writing and reflecting from within years of action and contemplation They build upon particularly fruitful aspects of Pohl's work through expansion clarification and occasional disagreement A mix of scholars and practitioners colleagues former students and friends the contributors represent a wide variety of theoretical and practical expertise This volume honors Pohl most when its readers choose to take the wisdom within its pages and embody that in life together Reports of
