Hal Foster:

The Return of the Real Hal Foster, 1996-09-25 In The Return of the Real Hal Foster discusses the development of art and theory since 1960 and reorders the relation between prewar and postwar avant gardes Opposed to the assumption that contemporary art is somehow belated he argues that the avant garde returns to us from the future repositioned by innovative practice in the present And he poses this retroactive model of art and theory against the reactionary undoing of progressive culture that is pervasive today After the models of art as text in the 1970s and art as simulacrum in the 1980s Foster suggests that we are now witness to a return to the real to art and theory grounded in the materiality of actual bodies and social sites If The Return of the Real begins with a new narrative of the historical avant gard it concludes with an original reading of this contemporary situation and what it portends for future practices of art and theory culture and politics

Cartoonists, Works, and Characters in the United States through 2005 John Lent, 2006-04-30 This penultimate work in John Lent's series of bibliographies on comic art gathers together an astounding array of citations on American cartoonists and their work Author John Lent has used all manner of methods to gather the citations searching library and online databases contacting scholars and other professionals attending conferences and festivals and scanning hundreds of periodicals He has gone to great length to categorize the citations in an easy to use scholarly fashion and in the process has helped to establish the field of comic art as an important part of social science and humanities research The ten volumes in this series covering all regions of the world constitute the largest printed bibliography of comic art in the world and serve as the beacon guiding the burgeoning fields of animation comics and cartooning They are the definitive works on comic art research and are exhaustive in their inclusiveness covering all types of publications academic trade popular fan etc from all over the world Also included in these books are citations to systematically researched academic exercises as well as more ephemeral sources such as fanzines press articles and fugitive materials conference papers unpublished documents etc attesting to Lent's belief that all pieces of information are vital in a new field of study such as comic art

Abstraction and the Holocaust Mark Godfrey, 2007-01-01 Mark Godfrey looks closely at a series of American art and architectural projects that respond to the memory of the Holocaust He investigates how abstract artists and architects have negotiated Holocaust memory without representing the Holocaust figuratively or symbolically

Art and Archive. Genealogy and Contemporaneity (1920-2010) Anna Maria Guasch, 2024-12-31 This book provides a comprehensive exploration of the relationship between art and the archive The author examines how artists have engaged with archival materials practices and methodologies throughout history from the avant garde movements of the early 20th century to contemporary artistic practices She explores the ways in which artists have appropriated transformed and recontextualized archival documents and narratives to create new meanings and perspectives on history memory and identity Guasch also discusses the role of the archive in shaping artistic production reception and historiography highlighting its significance as a site of cultural memory and knowledge production Through a series of case studies and theoretical reflections the book offers insights into the diverse ways in which artists have navigated the archive as a source of inspiration critique and intervention in the artistic process Art and Archive represents an archaeological and genealogical history of the relationships sometimes linear sometimes discontinuous between art and the archive The archive ceases to be a dusty space or a repository of historical artifacts to become an active discursive and relational system that establishes aesthetically socially and politically new relationships of temporality between past present and future in what is understood as the time of the future perfect Cinema and Art as Archive Aa. Vv.,2015-03-11T00:00:00+01:00 As Jacques Derrida wrote in 1995 while considering Archive Fever nothing is less reliable or less clear today than the word archive Nevertheless the historic cultural dimension of the contemporary discursive practices in cinema and art develops in the semantic openendedness of the term in the repositioning of the idea of archive The individual disciplines involved in one such field history of cinema and art theory of cinema and art aesthetics semiotics philology etc begin to open up to questioning the notion of archive even in negative in other words what after Michel Foucault the archive is not or does not seem to be The archive is not the library of libraries or encyclopedia it is not memory it is not museum it is not a database In recent years the attention focused on such ideas has not so much highlighted the impulses turns and specific forms of art art archive as it has revealed in many ways how the archive concerns us in the interrelation of aesthetic political ethical and legal levels among various disciplinary fields Heritage Comics Auctions, Dallas Signature Auction Catalog #817 Ivy Press,2005-06 The Definitive Prince Valiant Companion Brian M.
