International Perspectives in Health Informatics Elizabeth Borycki, 2011

Health information systems are now widely used around the world to raise the quality of healthcare reduce medical error rates and improve access to health information and services and health informatics is now recognized as a separate and unique area of disciplinary study and professional practice This book presents the proceedings of the 2011 Information Technology and Communications in Health ITCH conference in Victoria BC Canada in February 2011 Health informatics issues are not unique to one country or one organization and with its theme of International Perspectives this conference provides a unique opportunity to share the lessons learned by both developed and developing countries Effective use of scarce healthcare resources ensuring the long term sustainability of healthcare systems and moving the science of health informatics forward are discussed and the conference also addresses key issues at the intersection of technology and healthcare such as privacy ethics patient safety efficiency and effectiveness which are common to healthcare providers worldwide The improvement of healthcare systems which employ health informatics technology is dependent upon such international exchanges and solution sharing and this book will be of interest to all those involved in providing better healthcare worldwide

Medical Informatics Europe 1991 Klaus-Peter Adlassnig, Georg Grabner, Stellan Bengtsson, Rolf Hansen, 2013-03-13 This volume contains the proceedings of the Tenth International Congress on Medical Informatics MIE 91 that will be held in Vienna Austria August 19 22 1991 The MIE 91 Congress was organized by the European Federation for Medical Informatics EFMI in cooperation with the Austrian Computer Society OCG and the Austrian Society for Biomedical Engineering OGBMT It follows the previous congresses in Cambridge 1978 Berlin 1979 Toulouse 1981 Dublin 1982 Brussels 1984 Helsinki 1985 Rome 1987 Oslo 1988 and the Congress 1990 in Glasgow The proceedings contain 199 contributions to the MIE 91 Congress They cover all presentations which are part of the scientific programme of MIE 91 among them 157 paper presentations with an average of five pages 28 poster presentations again with an average of five pages and 14 abstracts of demonstrations with an average of one page The papers included were selected by an International Programme Committee out of over 300 submissions after careful review by at least two international reviewers for whose estimable efforts we are especially thankful The recommendations of the reviewers were incorporated in the final texts Some papers were reworked by a professional translator to obtain a high quality of presentation Several submissions could not be considered for presentation at MIE 91 because of shortage of congress time and limitations in the number of pages of the proceedings

AIME 89 Jim Hunter, John Cookson, Jeremy Wyatt, 2012-12-06 The Second European Conference on Artificial Intelligence in Medicine followed the popular field being knowledge based work concepts methodologies software and other tools systems and evaluations of systems and experiences Several papers describe functional integration between differing systems institutions and even geographic areas they confirm a trend towards having knowledge based systems contained in or integrated with overall management information systems serving the physician as well as the rest of the health support team As well as contributions on those topics that have been covered in MEDINFO congresses since their inception in 1974 such as bibliographic systems nursing informatics and hospital information systems other issues addressed include data standards such as semantics syntax and communication standards the quality accuracy and ethical values of medical data and developments in networking
