Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, B. H. D. Buchloh, Matthew Marks Gallery, 2003 Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, Johanna Burton, Matthew Marks Gallery, 2009 Text by Johanna Burton Ellsworth Kelly: Catalogue Raisonné of Paintings and Sculpture Yve-Alain Bois, 2021 Written by Kelly scholar Yve Alain Bois in direct collaboration with the artist's estate this comprehensive multivolume publication contains exhaustive documentation of each of Kelly's paintings, sculptures, and reliefs. This is volume 2. The catalogue includes insightful texts and high quality images of individual works and preparatory drawings along with provenance information, exhibition history, and bibliographic information. Agnes Martin - Transcultural Translations Mona Schieren, 2025-02-27 The work of Agnes Martin has frequently been associated with East Asian philosophies. Particularly highlighting the oeuvre of this US artist, Mona Schieren presents comprehensive research on the influence of Asianist aesthetics in post-1945 American art. More than just historical analysis, her study opens an entirely new perspective on Martin's appropriation of Asianisms by focusing on transcultural translation and redefining Martin's work beyond Abstract Expressionism and Minimalism. This offers new viewpoints on the aesthetic, philosophical, and visual relationships in American postwar art and takes a nuanced approach that moves beyond generalized notions of Zen in the US art world. Schieren's exploration of the intentional and specific uses of Asianist aesthetics profoundly contributes to insights in international art histories and cultural translations. Matrix, 1975 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction Tamara Trodd, 2015-09-25 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction presents a striking new approach to how traditional art mediums—painting, sculpture, and drawing—changed in the twentieth century in response to photography, film, and other technologies. Countering the modernist view that the medium provides advanced art with resistance against technological pressures, Tamara Trodd argues that we should view art and its practices as imaginatively responding to the potential that artists glimpsed in mechanical reproduction: putting art into dialogue with the commercial cultures of its time. The Art of Mechanical Reproduction weaves a rich history of the experimental networks in which artists as diverse as Paul Klee, Hans Bellmer, Ellsworth Kelly, Robert Rauschenberg, Gerhard Richter, Chris Marker, and Tacita Dean have worked, and it shows for the first time how extensively technological innovations of the moment have affected their work. Original and broad-ranging, The Art of Mechanical Reproduction challenges some of the most respected and entrenched criticism of the past several decades and allows us to think about these artists anew. Radical Form Megan A. Sullivan, 2022-08-23 A timely reassessment of some of the most daring projects of abstraction from South America. Emphasizing the open-ended and self-critical nature of the projects of abstraction in South America from the 1930s through the mid-1960s, this important new volume focuses on the artistic practices of Joaquín Torres García, Tomás Maldonado, Alejandro Otero, and Lygia Clark. Megan A. Sullivan positions the adoption of modernist abstraction by South American artists as part of a larger critique of the economic and social transformations caused by Latin America's state-led programs of rapid industrialization. Sullivan thoughtfully explores the

diverse ways this skepticism of modernization and social and political change was expressed Ultimately the book makes it clear that abstraction in South America was understood not as an artistic style to be followed but as a means to imagine a universalist mode of art a catalyst for individual and collective agency and a way to express a vision of a better future for South American society Seeing Rothko Glenn Phillips, Thomas E. Crow, 2005 This volume explores the profound and varied responses elicited by Russian born American painter Mark Rothko's 1903-1970 most compelling creations Rothko was classified as an abstract expressionist although he himself rejected this label and even resisted classification as an abstract painter Throughout his career Rothko was concerned with what other people experienced when they looked at his canvases As his work shifted from figurative imagery to luminous fields of color his concern expanded to the setting in which his paintings were exhibited In a series of analytic personal and even poetic essays by contemporary scholars Rothko's works are analyzed This volume also reproduces a Scribble Book in which Rothko jotted down his ideas on teaching art to children and a sketchbook both dating to the early years of the artist's career The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Photography and the Art of Chance Robin Kelsey, 2015-05-26 As anyone who has wielded a camera knows photography has a unique relationship to chance It also represents a struggle to reconcile aesthetic aspiration with a mechanical process Robin Kelsey reveals how daring innovators expanded the aesthetic limits of photography in order to create art for a modern world American Moderns on Paper Erin Monroe, Carol Troyen, 2010 American Moderns on Paper presents a selection of approximately 100 of the finest watercolors pastels and drawings by leading American modernists from the Wadsworth Atheneum's renowned collection of American art Works by Sloan O Keefe Hopper Marin Dal and Wyeth among many others serve as notable examples of the various styles and subjects pursued by artists in America from 1910 to 1960 The catalogue entries are accompanied by artist biographies Organized chronologically and generously illustrated throughout the catalogue is introduced by two essays exploring the historical significance of the collection and the importance to American modernists of working on paper rather than canvas Providing a rich history of the collection the volume illuminates not only its historic roots but also the concurrent national evolution of interest in watercolor and drawings Published in association with the Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art Exhibition Schedule Amon Carter Museum Fort Worth TX 2 27 10 5 30 10 Portland Museum of Art Portland ME 6 22 10 9 12 10 Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art Hartford CT 10 2 10 1 2 11 Face to Face Daros Collection (Art), 2008 Since its emergence in the 1980s and 90s the Daros Collection in Zurich has accumulated about 280 works by 30 outstanding North American and European artists It possesses one of the finest collections of early Warhol and major works by Sigmar Polke Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jaar and Louise Bourgeois among many others In 2000 when the strength and integrity of this collection had been established the museum boldly struck off in a new direction and the Daros Latin America Collection was founded Already comprising roughly 1 000 works by around 100 artists including Carlos Amorales Jos Bedia Alfredo Jaar Gego Guillermo Kuitca Vik Muniz among others it is now the largest collection of Latin American art in Europe an exciting new resource that will doubtless have interesting long term ramifications for contemporary European art Face to Face is the first volume to bring the two Daros Collections together thereby engaging these works created in different media and of various cultural origin in a dynamic dialogue that disrupts ordinary canon oriented perspectives Face to Face thus not only deepens our knowledge of the respective qualities of the two collections but also explores the common characteristics of their cultural backgrounds
