Danielle,2014-09 As a child I was perfectly loved by my momma and daddy While we didn't have much we had one another and that was all that mattered Then as fate would have it my daddy died in my momma's arms As she slipped further and further into darkness I took on the role of parent rather than child and cared for her until finally death released her from her prison and she went to be with him With no family left I turn to Shaun For him this is a victory He finally has his prize Once married he has no more use for me Soon after we are married the nightmare begins The never ending abuse and neglect goes on until finally fate releases me too only it is Shaun who is dead Now with only pain and loneliness left in Mississippi I head out on a journey to find myself I am determined to hide my secrets from the world and to make a new life for myself without ever trusting another man ever After three days on the road not knowing where I am going I find myself in the small seaside town of Newport Oregon The beauty that surrounds me captivates my imagination and sets my soul free On an empty beach however I run right into the only other person there literally On my bottom in the sand and seeing stars he laughs at me then helps me up Little did either of us know that the moment our hands met our lives would be changed forever Now after only a short month we can't live without each other no matter how we each try and fight it Moments apart seem like an eternity What neither of us know is that Billy is not the only one who has his sights set on me Before long I find myself digging deeper than I ever thought possible to find the strength to fight for my life Soon however it seems that not even Billy can protect me so he enlists the help of his two brothers While my scars and my heart are healing Billy and I fall more deeply in love every day It seems that the nightmare that has been my life for the past fifteen years is finally over But lurking in the darkness where obsession and fear thrive he waits for his next opportunity
