Edwardian House Trevor Yorke, 2013 Edwardian houses built between 1880 and 1914 remain some of our best constructed elegant and durable housing stock Many were influenced by the romantic styles of Art Nouveau and the Arts and Crafts Movement It was an age of mass production but the pride in these homes shown by their builders is still evidenced by the dates of construction

Ireland & the New Architecture Sean Rothery, 1989-01-01 Architecture like print is ubiquitous a part of the fabric of culture which touches every aspect of our lives while reflecting and articulating socio economic change As the twentieth century draws to a close the architecture inscribed in its early decades attracts ever closer scrutiny The design movements in fin de siècle Europe saw manifestations of modernism combine with unprecedented advances in technology and American machine culture emerging in a new architecture Viennese Rationalism supplanted free form Art Nouveau Beaux Arts gave way to Le Corbusier bizarre brick Expressionism of the Amsterdam School coexisted with De Stijl's bare abstractions Modern architecture in the form of the International Style of Gropius and the Bauhaus reached its apogee in the early 1930s but styles scorned by this orthodoxy Art Deco and stripped Classicism flourished alongside it and are now being reappraised

Ireland and the New Architecture 1900-1940 is the first comprehensive study of its subject It describes the pioneering buildings of the period and examines their intellectual scaffolding and the influence of international design movements demonstrating that Ireland was no architectural backwater as is often assumed It looks in detail at the writings and examples of early modernism and the way in which architects of a fledgling Free State went beyond Britain to France Holland Scandinavia Austria Germany and America for models of new structures in both private and public spheres of building A generous selection of over two hundred drawings and photographs along with extended interview material with survivors from the time give this book unique value It is both a stimulating work of reference and a survey guide to Ireland's position in and contribution to the mainstream of modern architecture
