Guy Debord Presente Potlatch 19541957:

New Afterword by the Author Anselm Jappe, 1999-08-05 This is the first serious intellectual biography of Guy Debord prime mover of the Situationist International 1957 1972 and author of The Society of the Spectacle perhaps the seminal book of May 1968 in France Anselm Jappe rejects recent attempts to set Debord up as a postmodern icon arguing that he was a social theorist in the Hegelian Marxist tradition not a precursor of Jean Baudrillard but an heir of the young Georg Lukacs of History and Class Consciousness 1923 Neither hagiographical nor sectarian Guy Debord places its subject squarely in his historical context the politicizing Letterist and Situationist anti artists who in the European aftermath of World War II sought to criticize and transcend the Surrealist legacy The book offers a lively critical and unusually reliable account of Debord's last avant garde on its way from radical bohemianism to revolutionary theory Jappe also discusses Debord's films which are largely inaccessible at present This English language edition of the book has been revised by the author and features an updated critical bibliography of Debord and the Situationists

Guy Debord Vincent Kaufmann, 2006 In this ambitious and innovative biography Kaufmann deftly locates his subject within the historical and intellectual context of the radical social political and artistic movements in which he participated

The Inflatable Moment Marc Dessauce, 1999-09 Item presents a complete annotated catalogue of the designs of the Utopie architects and reflects the social events and student protests of 1968

Constructed Situations Frances Stracey, 2014-10-20 The Situationist International were a group of anti authoritarian highly cultured revolutionary artists whose energy and enragement fundamentally shaped the revolutions of the late 1960s most famously in Paris in May 68 They took on their shoulders the history of the workers struggle saw that it had been corrupted by authoritarianism and transformed it with influences incorporating the avant garde via Dada and Surrealism They were not Marxologists defenders of the faith Marxism came back to life in their raging analyses the use of the spectacle and at the heart of the project was the idea of the constructed situation This book by Frances Stracey offers itself up as the first historiography of constructed situations Within it are new insights into the movement and with them a sense of relevance to political situations and practice today As an archivist Stracey uncovered new documents which amongst other things revealed how the SI related to representations of sexuality and is able to discuss whether they could be considered as feminists or not She also looked at their famous motto Never Work and again shows how alienated labour is even more relevant to us today Constructed Situations is not a history of celebrated personalities or cultural influences or political circumstances It is instead an open door to one of the most influential art movements in modern history and an invitation for us to reclaim inspiration from this ubiquitous movement

France and the Visual Arts Since 1945 Catherine Dossin, 2019-01-01 Taking on the myth of France's creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945 Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau Réalisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Schffer Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art

Collectivism After Modernism Blake Stimson, Gregory Sholette, Don't start an art collective until you read this book Guerrilla Girls Ever since Web 2.0 with its wikis blogs and social networks the art of collaboration is back on the agenda Collectivism after Modernism convincingly proves that art collectives did not stop after the proclaimed death of the historical avant gardes Like never before technology reinvents the social and artists claim the steering wheel Geert Lovink Institute of Network Cultures Amsterdam This examination of the succession of post war avant gardes and collectives is new important and engaged Stephen F Eisenman author of The Abu Ghraib Effect Collectivism after Modernism crucially helps us understand what artists and others can do in mushy stinky times like ours What can the seemingly powerless do in the face of mighty forces that seem to have their act really together Here Stimson and Sholette put forth many good answers Yes Men Spanning the globe from Europe Japan and the United States to Africa Cuba and Mexico Collectivism after Modernism explores the ways in which collectives function within cultural norms social conventions and corporate or state sanctioned art Together these essays demonstrate that collectivism survives as an influential artistic practice despite the art world's star system of individuality Collectivism after Modernism provides the historical understanding necessary for thinking through postmodern collective practice now and into the future Contributors Irina Aristarkhova Jesse Drew Okwui Enwezor Rubn Gallo Chris Gilbert Brian Holmes Alan Moore Jelena Stojanović Reiko Tomii Rachel Weiss Blake Stimson is associate professor of art history at the University of California Davis the author of The Pivot of the World Photography and Its Nation and coeditor of Visual Worlds and Conceptual Art A Critical Anthology Gregory Sholette is an artist writer and cofounder of collectives Political Art Documentation Distribution and REPOhistory He is coeditor of The Interventionists Users Manual for the Creative Disruption of Everyday Life To understand the various forms of postwar collectivism as historically determined phenomena and to articulate the possibilities for contemporary collectivist art production is the aim of Collectivism after Modernism The essays assembled in this anthology argue that to make truly collective art means to reconsider the relation between art and public examples from the Situationist International and Group Material to Paper Tiger Television and the Congolese collective Le Groupe Amos make the point To construct an art of shared experience means to go beyond projecting what Blake Stimson and Gregory Sholette call the imagined community a collective has to be more than an ideal and more than communal craft it has to be a truly social enterprise Not only does it use unconventional forms and media to communicate the issues and experiences usually excluded from artistic representation but it gives voice to a multiplicity of perspectives At its best it relies on the participation of the audience to actively contribute to the work carrying forth the dialogue it inspires

Le cinéma de Guy Debord ou la négativité à l'oeuvre, 1952-1994 Fabien Danesi,2011

Idols of the Market Sven Lütticken,2009 In this is a book length essay art critic and historian Sven Lutticken takes philosopher Theodor Adorno s critique of popular arts and culture a step further Adorno criticized the manipulation of taste in official cultures and the pretense of individualism Lutticken looks at the tension between fundamentalism and individualism in the context of the current religious political image wars This book examines both the afterlife of religious elements in modern culture and possible responses to the current religious re appropriation of Adorno s critique of modern capitalist culture by both Christian fundamentalists and radical Islamists

Abstraction Maria Lind,2013 This anthology reconsiders crucial aspects of abstraction s resurgence in contemporary art exploring three equally significant strategies explored in current practice formal abstraction economic abstraction and social abstraction In the 1960s movements as diverse as Latin American neo concretism op art and eccentric abstraction disrupted the homogeneity universality and rationality associated with abstraction These modes of abstraction opened up new forms of engagement with the phenomenal world as well as the possibility of diverse readings of the same forms ranging from formalist and transcendental to socio economic and conceptual In the 1980s the writings of Peter Halley Fredric Jameson and others considered an increasingly abstracted world in terms of its economic social and political conditions all of which were increasingly manifested through abstract codes or sites of style Such economic abstraction is primarily addressed in art through subject or theme but Deleuze and Guattari s notion of art as abstract machine opens up possibilities for art s role in the construction of a new kind of social reality In more recent art a third strand of abstraction emerges a form of social abstraction centered on the strategy of withdrawal Social abstraction implies stepping aside a movement away from the mainstream suggesting the possibilities for art to maneuver within self organized withdrawn initiatives in the field of cultural production Artists surveyed include Lee Bontecou Louise Bourgeois Amilcar de Castro Paul C zanne Lygia Clark Kajsja Dahlberg Stephan Dillemath Marcel Duchamp Gardar Eide Einarsson G nther F rg Liam Gillick Ferreira Gullar Jean H lion Eva Hesse Jakob Jakobsen Jasper Johns Donald Judd Wassily Kandinsky Sol LeWitt Piet Mondrian Bruce Nauman H lio Oiticica Blinky Palermo Lygia Pape Mai Thu Perret Jackson Pollock Tobias Rehberger Bridget Riley Emily Roysden Lucas Samaras Julian Stanczak Frank Stella Hito Steyerl Theo van DoesburgWriters include Alfred H Barr Jr Ina Blom Lynne Cooke

The Bauhaus one of the icons of modernism was controversial from the start not only because of internal strife but also due to critique or enmities from the outside And the controversy did not end with the closure of the Bauhaus itself Yet nothing else revealed Bauhaus ideas and ideology as well as these confrontations did Through them the basic issues of the modernist program became clear It became obvious that there was no such thing as one kind of modernism just as there was no ONE Bauhaus instead there were different contradictory and even oppositional movements and positions the Bauhauses Few cultural movements have been as politically instrumentalized as the Bauhaus has These controversies reflect the relationship between politics and culture in the twentieth century and hence the history of the construction of German identity *Guy
