Game Over Uab:

The Last Amateurs John Feinstein, 2008-10-22 America's favorite sportswriter takes readers on a thrilling and unforgettable journey into the world of college basketball in this national bestseller. Like millions who love college basketball, John Feinstein was first drawn to the game because of its intensity, speed, and intelligence. Like many others, he felt that the vast sums of money involved in NCAA basketball had turned the sport into a division of the NBA rather than the beloved amateur sport it once was. He went in search of college basketball played with the passion and integrity it once inspired and found the Patriot League. As one of the NCAA's smallest leagues, none of these teams leaves college early to join the NBA, and none of these coaches gets national recognition or endorsement contracts. The young men on these teams are playing for the love of the sport, of competition, and of their schools. John Feinstein spent a season with these players, uncovering the drama of their daily lives and the passions that drive them to commit hundreds of hours to basketball, even when there is no chance of a professional future. He offers a look at American sport at its purest. Marketing for Special and Academic Libraries

Marshall, 2000-07-01 The spectacular season turned in by the Auburn Tigers in 1998-99 when the SEC champions earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament is just the latest in a long line of outstanding achievements generated by the coaching of Cliff Ellis. In his nearly six years at Auburn, Ellis has led the rejuvenation of Tigers basketball, helping the school enjoy the high level of success it had not experienced since the days of NBA standouts Charles Barkley, Chuck Person, and Chris Morris. Since surprising all the doubters during his first season with the school, Ellis has helped build Auburn into a consistent winning program and one that exploded onto the national scene in 1999. Clearly, Cliff Ellis has worked his coaching magic once again, and he looks forward to leading Auburn basketball successfully into the new millennium. Assembly West Point
