This book engages with Christian church traditions and disability issues in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe in particular It critically reflects on how the church has not done much to intentionally minister to and with persons with disabilities In the context of this volume ministering to is concerned with creating worshipping space for persons with disabilities while ministering with is connecting and identifying with persons with disabilities to meet their needs from the material life of the church The author considers a stewardship model of disability as an appropriate ministerial response to transform lives in poverty stricken postcolonial contexts The argument put forth is that the church is a living organism endowed with spiritual and material resources and that these resources should be appropriated to marginalised stakeholders Process Spirituality Bruce G. Epperly, 2017-11-24 What one believes about God shapes how one worships prays thinks and lives Dr Bruce Epperly who provided a very short introduction to process theology in Process Theology Embracing Adventure with God now provides a short and succinct guide to spiritual practices for those who want to embrace and live the adventurous spiritual life From times of worship to prayer to solitude and even to study he provides a guide to living with a God who is deeply and intimately involved in our lives Holiness and spirituality are not about being other worldly Rather they are about being even more in the here and now than any of us may have thought possible Transformative Politics of Nature Andrea Olive, Chance

Finegan, Karen F. Beazley, 2023-10-02 Transformative Politics of Nature highlights the most significant barriers to conservation in Canada and discusses strategies to confront and overcome them Featuring contributions from academics as well as practitioners the volume brings together the perspectives of both Indigenous and non Indigenous experts on land and wildlife conservation in a way that honours and respects all peoples and nature Contributors provide insights that enhance understanding of key barriers important actors and strategies for shaping policy at multiple levels of government across Canada The chapters engage academics environmental conservation organizations and Indigenous communities in dialogues and explorations of the politics of wildlife conservation They address broad and interrelated themes organized into three parts barriers to conservation transformation through reconciliation and transformation through policy and governance Taken together the essays demonstrate the need for increased social political awareness of biodiversity and conservation in
