The Film Studies Reader Joanne Hollows, Peter Hutchings, Mark Jancovich, 2000 Film Studies Joanne Hollows, Mark Jancovich, Peter Hutchings, 2000-04-28 Ranging from the mass culture critics to postcolonial and queer theory this text is an introduction to the main theoretical approaches within film studies It includes primary sources such as extracts from key critics and offers a general introduction and chapter introductions that put the extracts in historical context explaining their contributions to the debates in film studies Contributors include Tom Gunning Steven Cohan Janet Staiger James Naremore Jim Kitses Carol Clover and Jane Gaines The Animation Studies Reader Nichola Dobson, Annabelle Honess Roe, Amy Ratelle, Caroline Ruddell, 2018-10-18 The Animation Studies Reader brings together both key writings within animation studies and new material in emerging areas of the field The collection provides readers with seminal texts that ground animation studies within the contexts of theory and aesthetics form and genre and issues of representation The first section collates key readings on animation theory on how we might conceptualise animation and on some of the fundamental qualities of animation New material is also introduced in this section specifically addressing questions raised by the nature style and materiality of animation The second section outlines some of the main forms that animation takes which includes discussions of genre Although this section cannot be exhaustive the material chosen is particularly useful as it provides samples of analysis that can illuminate some of the issues the first section of the book raises The third section focuses on issues of representation and how the medium of animation might have an impact on how bodies gender sexuality race and ethnicity are represented These representations can only be read through an understanding of the questions that the first two sections of the book raise we can only decode these representations if we take into account form and genre and theoretical conceptualisations such as visual pleasure spectacle the uncanny realism etc Posthuman Studies Reader Evi D. Sampanikou, Jan Stasienko, 2021-04-20 The new reader presents an up to date collection of seminal texts dedicated to all branches of debates on Posthuman Studies Transhumanism Critical Posthumanism and Metahumanism It includes classical as well as cutting edge contributions to these debates The Posthuman Studies Reader is an indispensable resource for studying as well as teaching key concepts central claims and main arguments of contemporary debates in the field of Posthuman Studies The reader includes texts by Neil Badmington Karen Barad Nick Bostrom Rosi Braidotti Claire Colebrook Jaime del Val FM 2030 Francis Fukuyama Elaine Graham Donna Haraway Ihab Habib Hassan N Katherine Hayles James Hughes Julian Huxley Brian Massumi Max More David Pearce Anders Sandberg Stefan Lorenz Sorgner Stelarc Natasha Vita More and Cary Wolfe This Reader is a perfect guide to get into bleeding edge philosophy Nicol s Rojas Cort s Faculty of Philosophy and Humanities University of Chile The Reader can be used not only as a textbook in higher education but also by all researchers and students in these fields as reference I highly recommend it to everyone who is interested in these movements and those works from which excerpts are included in it Yunus Tuncel The New School New York Since Sorgner

Sampanikou Stasienco and their colleagues almost singlehandedly are crafting and advancing this discipline through its forming stages when they publish a book with handpicked canonic texts it should be treated as a landmark Carmel Vaisman The Cohn Institute and The Multidisciplinary Program in the Humanities Tel Aviv University What makes the Posthuman Studies Reader interesting and exciting is the facility to have in one volume the basic ideas and essentials of transhumanism critical posthumanism and metahumanism The reader provides in a condensed version an introduction to posthuman studies for both academic and nonacademic audiences Leo Igwe Department of Religious Studies University of Cape Town The Posthuman Studies Reader serves as a comprehensive guide and or manual of an evolving and expanding Post Trans Meta Humanism discourse because of the clarity of organization by the editors and the highest scholarship of the writers the collection was able to drive the interest of readers a notch or two higher Joseph Reylan B Viray Polytechnic University of the Philippines A Dictionary of Film Studies Annette Kuhn, Guy Westwell, 2012-06-21 This volume covers all aspects of film studies including critical terms concepts movements national and international cinemas film history genres organizations practices and key technical terms and concepts It is an ideal reference for students and teachers of film studies and anyone with an interest in film studies and criticism Defining Cult Movies Mark Jancovich, 2003-11-08 This collection concentrates on the analysis of cult movies how they are defined who defines them and the cultural politics of these definitions The definition of the cult movie relies on a sense of its distinction from the mainstream or ordinary This also raises issues about the perception of it as an oppositional form of cinema and of its strained relationships to processes of institutionalization and classification In other words cult movie fandom has often presented itself as being in opposition to the academy commercial film industries and the media more generally but has been far more dependent on these forms than it has usually been willing to admit The international roster of essayists range over the full and entertaining gamut of cult films from Dario Argento Spanish horror and Peter Jackson s New Zealand gore-fests to sexploitation kung fu and sci fi flicks

Film and Literature Timothy Corrigan, 2012 The Routledge new edition of this classic book functions as an accessible introduction to the historical and theoretical exchanges between film and literature and also includes the key critical readings necessary for an understanding of this increasingly vibrant and popular field of adaption studies This new edition has been fully updated and is usefully separated into three sections in the first section Timothy Corrigan guides readers through the history of film and literature to the present the second section has expanded to reprint 28 key essays by leading theorists in the field including Andr ́ bsp Bazin Linda Hutcheon and Robert Stam as well as new essays by Timothy Corrigan and William Galperin and the third section offers hands on strategies and advice for students writing about film and literature Film and Literature will fill a gap for many film and literature courses and courses concentrating on the interplay between the two The companion website features an interactive timeline extended filmography and comprehensive bibliography by Geoff Wright Samford University USA www.routledge.com/cw/corrigan Media Studies Sue

Thornham, Caroline Bassett, Paul Marris, 2009 Why are some people more capable than others What are the reasons for someone gaining unusual abilities or special expertise or being especially creative What has to happen in order for a young person to become a child prodigy or genius How can we help today's children to reach high levels of ability and to shine in the arts or the sciences in sports or games or to excel in other fields of expertise The Psychology of High Abilities explains how when and why people acquire such special expertise and illuminates ways to make it possible for larger numbers of young people to extend their capabilities Examining how and why people differ in their capabilities it investigates the actual causes underlying impressive accomplishments and achievements The volume reveals the kinds of influences that contribute to high abilities and provides practical insights into the most effective ways for extending the abilities of young people and creating higher levels of expertise

The Animation Studies Reader Nichola Dobson, Annabelle Honess Roe, Amy Ratelle, Caroline Ruddell, 2018-10-18 The Animation Studies Reader brings together both key writings within animation studies and new material in emerging areas of the field The collection provides readers with seminal texts that ground animation studies within the contexts of theory and aesthetics form and genre and issues of representation The first section collates key readings on animation theory on how we might conceptualise animation and on some of the fundamental qualities of animation New material is also introduced in this section specifically addressing questions raised by the nature style and materiality of animation The second section outlines some of the main forms that animation takes which includes discussions of genre Although this section cannot be exhaustive the material chosen is particularly useful as it provides samples of analysis that can illuminate some of the issues the first section of the book raises The third section focuses on issues of representation and how the medium of animation might have an impact on how bodies gender sexuality race and ethnicity are represented These representations can only be read through an understanding of the questions that the first two sections of the book raise we can only decode these representations if we take into account form and genre and theoretical conceptualisations such as visual pleasure spectacle the uncanny realism etc
