Afterschool Nancy Vansieleghem, Joris Vlieghe, Pieter Verstraete, 2015-10-22 Tangible tension of omnipresent images in education The intricate relation between images and education is an old issue that can easily be dated back to the rise of Modernity Ever since it has been argued on the one hand that images might assist teachers in educating the new generation but on the other might detract students attention by offering them mere entertainment instead of seriously pursuing essential subject material Today with the omnipresence of screens in our daily life this tension has become all the more tangible Some may even start to wonder whether education traditionally conceived as schooling is still achievable under these conditions The title Afterschool refers to a film by Antonio Campos which depicted these new conditions very accurately In the same way the book articulates in an affirmative manner the role of education in an Afterschool era and also what images could signify in such an era both for educators and educational researchers All essays included in this book in one way or another respond to this process of digitization At the same time they present new and unexpected ways of making use of images in educational practice and research Contributors S nke Ahrens independent researcher Marc De Blicq LUCA School of Arts Ghent Pieter Jan Decoster Ghent University Florelle D Hoest Universidad Complutense de Madrid Jan Dietvorst visual artist Jan Masschelein KU Leuven Nancy Vansieleghem LUCA School of Arts Ghent Maarten Vanvolsem LUCA School of Arts Brussels Pieter Verstraete KU Leuven Roy Villevoeye visual artist Joris Vlieghe Liverpool Hope University
