Television Western Players of the Fifties Everett Aaker, 2024-10-15. Modeled after the Mack V. Wright 1920 film version, the 1949 western television series The Lone Ranger made Clayton Moore's masked character one of the most recognized in American popular culture. Other westerns followed, and by 1959 there were 32 being shown daily on prime time television. Many of the stars of the nearly 75 westerns went on to become American icons and symbols of the Hollywood West. This encyclopedia includes every actor and actress who had a regular role in a television western from 1949 through 1959. The entries cite biographical and family details, accounts of how the player first broke into show business, and details of roles played, as well as opinions from the actors and their contemporaries. A full accounting of film, serial, and television credits is also included. The appendix lists 84 television westerns with dates, show times, themes, and stars.

The Agency Frank Rose, 1996. The story of the William Morris Agency is the story of show business itself. Founded at the turn of the century, it stood as the premier agency in Hollywood for 80 years. With unvarnished descriptions of the board that runs William Morris and the needy and demanding stars they represent, The Agency is a compelling tale that lifts the curtain on the most intriguing business in America today. Finding Zsa Zsa Sam Staggs, 2019-07-30. For decades, the Gabor dynasty was the epitome of glamour and fairy tale success. But as biographer, film historian, and Gabor family friend Sam Staggs reveals, behind the headlines is a true story more dramatic, fabulous, and surprising than their self-styled legend would have you believe. In 1945, after barely escaping Hitler's invasion of Hungary followed by liberation of the country by the Red Army, three members of the Gabor family—Jolie, her ex-husband Vilmos, and their daughter Magda—arrived in New York City. In Hollywood, their other daughters, Zsa Zsa and Eva, had worked feverishly throughout the war years to secure their rescue from the Nazis' plan to exterminate the Jews. Stepping off the boat, Jolie, the iron-willed matriarch, already had a golden future mapped out for her sharp-witted, cosmopolitan beauties. Over the next six decades, with twenty-three husbands between them, suave All About Eve star George Sanders would wed both Zsa Zsa and Magda; scores of lovers and roller coaster rides in film, television, theater, and business, the elegant yet gloriously bawdy, addictively watchable Gabor family carved a niche in the entertainment industry that made them world-famous pop culture icons. But beneath the artifice of Dior and diamonds was another side to the story they never revealed: the whole truth. This first verifiable history of the Gabor family casts a startling new light on these extraordinary women. Finding Zsa Zsa reveals the tumultuous and often unforgotten battles between mother and daughter, sister and sister-in-law, and husband and wife. Eva's bearded romance with Merv Griffin that allowed them both to seek the same sex lovers; Zsa Zsa's involuntary confinement in a mental hospital; her life-long struggle with bipolar disorder; and her last unconsummated marriage to the manipulating faux prince Frederic von Anhalt. Here too is the untold story of Zsa Zsa's daughter Francesca Hilton a gifted photographer who eschewed the Gabor lifestyle and paid a sad price for her independence The story of family patriarch Vilmos Gabor who returned to Hungary only to be trapped behind the Iron Curtain reads like a Cold War spy thriller Culled from new interviews with family colleagues and confidantes and the unpublished memoirs of the author s friend Francesca Hilton Finding Zsa Zsa finally introduces fans to the Gabor family they never knew including many never before seen photos It s a riveting outrageously funny bittersweet and affectionately honest read of four women who were vulnerable tough charitable endlessly fascinating and always glamorous to a fault Bad TV Craig Nelson,1995 The ultimate in the genre of funny TV nostalgia books Bad TV celebrates the amazingly bad shows that have made it onto TV from My Mother the Car and Pink Lady Jeff to Manimal and Cop Rock and into our psyches and hands out awards to the bad classics in every category 45 photos Written Out of Television Steven Lance,1996-05-14 Examines cast changes in television programs in nearly 400 entries filled with fascinating television facts and trivia The publishers weekly ,1991 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1975 New Books in the Communications Library University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
