Eighteenth Century Exeter Robert Newton,1984 Regional Architecture Of the West of England A.E. Richardson,1924 British Privateering Enterprise in the Eighteenth Century David J. Starkey,2022-06-17 An important part of eighteenth century maritime conflict involved the destruction of enemy commerce and the protection of home trade In performing these tasks state navies were augmented by privateers vessels owned equipped and manned by private individuals authorised by their governments to attack and seize the enemy s seaborne property For their reward the investors and seafarers engaged in privateering ventures shared in the proceeds of any ships and goods taken and condemned as lawful prize Privateering therefore represented a business opportunity to the maritime community a chance to acquire instant wealth at the enemy s expense at the same time it appeared as a cheap convenient means by which the state might supplement its naval strength In this important analysis David J Starkey draws upon a wealth of documentary evidence to throw fresh light upon the character scale and significance of the British privateering business Rights and Priviledges of the Freemen of Exeter Richard Izacke,1751 The Architectural Review ,1916 Exeter Thomas Hart Taylor,1973 Sir John Bowring 1792-1872 Joyce A.
