Faith In Mind:

Faith in Mind 信心, 1987 Master Sheng yen offers a guide to Chan practice based on the poem Faith in Mind His words are transcribed from lectures given during a series of retreats spanning several years Since the talks were given within the context of intensive meditation practice I did not adopt a scholarly point of view or analytical approach It is not a formal commentary on the text rather I use the poem as a starting point to inspire the practitioner and deal with certain issues that arise during the course of practice The phrase faith in mind contains the two meanings of believing in and realizing the mind Faith in mind is the belief that we have a fundamental unmoving unchanging mind This mind is precisely Buddha mind
