Faith At Work:

God at Work David W. Miller, 2006-12-14 What was once taboo faith at work is increasingly accepted in corporate America From secretaries to CEOs growing numbers of businesspeople today want to bring their faith to work Yet they wrestle with how to do this effectively and appropriately in a pluralistic corporate setting For help they turn not to their clergy but to their peers and to a burgeoning cottage industry on spirituality at work They attend conferences and seminars participate in Bible study and prayer groups and read books blogs and eNewsletters They see their faith as a resource for ethical guidance and to help find meaning and purpose in their work In God at Work David W Miller looks at how this Faith at Work movement developed and considers its potential value for business and society Done well the integration of faith and work has positive implications at the personal level as well as for corporate ethics and the broader economic sphere At the same time increasing expressions of religion and spiritual practices at work also present the threat of divisiveness and discrimination Drawing on the insights of theological ethics as well as the sociology of religion Miller analyzes the history of the modern day Faith at Work movement from its roots in the late 19th century to its modern formulation and trajectory He examines the diversity of its members and modes of expression and constructs a new framework for understanding interpreting and critiquing the movement and its future Miller concludes that workers and professionals have a deep and lasting desire to live a holistic life to integrate the claims of their faith with the demands of their work He documents the surprising abdication of this field by church and theological academy and its embrace ironically by the management academy Offering compelling new evidence of the depth and breadth of spirituality at work Miller concludes that faith at work is a bona fide social movement and here to stay He establishes the importance of this movement identifies the possibilities and problems and points toward future research questions God at Work is essential reading for business scholars and leaders theologians and clergy and anyone interested in the integration of faith and work

Faith at Work Donal Dorr, 2007-03 In a world that questions more and more the quality of leadership in churches and politics Donald Dorr proposes a spirituality that supports authentic leadership Addressing primarily those who lead volunteer or non governmental agencies and religious organizations the author holds that they should provide a model of effective humane leadership for the business world public service and politics Dorr focuses on scriptural sources for a spirituality of leadership and draws insights from various spiritual traditions in the history of the church He emphasizes the surprisingly strong and consistent democratic tradition within Christianity He also draws on key elements in the thinking of political philosophers and management theorists In the heart of the book the author describes four different kinds of leaders and outlines five styles or manners in which good leadership is exercised Dorr concludes with a discussion of techniques for individual and communal discernment and the use of intuition in decision making Donald Dorr is a missionary who has worked for many years in leadership training and conducting spirituality workshops He is the author of eight previous books including the prize winning Spirituality and Justice Faith at Work S. Dyas and T. Burch,2011-11-21 You spend less than 1% of your time at church and nearly half of your waking life at work Expressing faith at work isn't usually allowed making it a very lonely place However God has placed you there for a reason Each person has a ministry platform they have been given Some are meant to stand up on Sunday morning and preach but most of us are led to share our faith less publicly around the water cooler by being a living example of faith in action Faith at Work will encourage and challenge you to find your ministry platform in the midst of your everyday routine Every person has a vocation and a calling What's yours

Followership and Faith at Work Debra J. Dean,Robert B. Huizinga,2022-02-18 This edited work expands the theory of followership by drawing on biblical examples to illustrate the role of faith in being a better follower Building on previous scholarship the book identifies different types of followers and explores how each type meets the needs of a leader in various scenarios The authors analyze various principles from the lives of followers of Jesus and demonstrate how they apply to modern workplaces Building upon the growing scholarship on workplace spirituality and organizational leadership this book offers practical and theoretical perspectives on integrating faith at work

Faith at Work Don Mathieson,2001 Collection of essays discussing the application of Christian faith into the work place exploring such issues as workplace ethics work and worship and thinking Biblically about work 29 Keys to Unlocking your Faith at Work & Win! Lorene Phillips,2016-12-02 Somewhere along the journey of my walk with Christ I was made to believe that the work we do for the Lord within the four walls of the church i.e any church ministry activity was most important and pleasing to God This teaching did not sit well with me As I spent more time in the Word and grew in my personal relationship with the Lord I became more and more aware that God wants ALL of my life to be a living sacrifice a life that is fully surrendered to Him and not just that part of my life that I offer within my church Coming to this realization was a journey of self acceptance confidence and authenticity understanding who I am created to be in Him I accepted fully that God had a specific plan for my life and that I must be true to the calling He has for me So instead of just focusing on participating or even leading church related activities I started to become more mindful of how I lived my life on a daily basis in my workplace to make sure that I give glory to God in all that I do say or think I started to look for opportunities to show and share Christ in my marketplace whenever I could I love to mentor and coach others and believe that my everyday life in the workplace is where I can be an active and living ambassador for Christ It is clear that God desires for me to be to be the salt and light in the world the marketplace that he has suited me for both in terms of skills and fit The calling on our lives is awesome and much bigger than we can imagine Through this book I want to encourage others to consider and change their lives allowing God complete access to their work life knowing that he cares about us in that sphere and requires us to be his witness as we accomplish our jobs This book will specifically encourage women and anyone men also who desires to increase their impact and demonstrate their faith in a practical way in the workplace I share transparently with others how I walk this called out life in the workplace in the most practical ways and provide them with an opportunity to consider ways in which they could become more effective for Christ in the workplace to which God has called them to operate Working for Better
