Fire In The Wind The Biography Of Dickey Chappelle:

Fire in the Wind Roberta Ostroff,1992 The life of Dickey Chapelle woman war correspondent and photojournalist

Women Engaged in War in Literature for Youth Hilary S. Crew,2007 Women at War portrays books and other resources that feature girls young women and adult women actively involved in various ways in battles wars and war time activities including their roles as nurses doctors spies soldiers correspondents photographers as well as their roles on the home front Fiction picture books nonfiction biographies autobiographies collective biographies oral narratives reference books journal and periodical articles and non print and electronic resources are included Teachers and librarians will find this to be an excellent curriculum planning resource The Encyclopedia of the Vietnam War Bloomsbury Publishing,2011-05-20 Now in its second edition this comprehensive study of the Vietnam War sheds more light on the longest and one of the most controversial conflicts in U S history The Vietnam War lasted more than a decade was the longest war in U S history and cost the lives of nearly 60 000 American soldiers as well as millions of Vietnamese many of whom were uninvolved civilians The lessons learned from this tragic conflict continue to have great relevance in today s world Now in its second edition The Encyclopedia of the Vietnam War A Political Social and Military History adds an entire additional volume of entries to the already exhaustive first edition making it the most comprehensive reference available about one of the most controversial events in U S history Written to provide multidimensional perspectives into the conflict it covers not only the American experience in Vietnam but also the entire scope of Vietnamese history including the French experience and the Indochina War as well as the origins of the conflict how the United States became involved and the extensive aftermath of this prolonged war It also provides the most complete and accurate order of battle ever published based upon data compiled from Vietnamese sources This latest release delivers even more of what readers have come to expect from the editorship of Spencer C Tucker and the military history experts at ABC CLIO Reporting the Cuban Revolution Leonard Ray Teel,2015-12-16 Reporting the Cuban Revolution reveals the untold story of thirteen American journalists in Cuba whose stories about Fidel Castro s revolution changed the way Americans viewed the conflict and altered U S foreign policy in Castro s favor Between 1956 and 1959 the thirteen correspondents worked underground in Cuba evading the repressive censorship of Fulgencio Batista s dictatorship in order to report on the rebellion led by Fidel Castro The journalists stories appeared in major newspapers magazines and national television and radio influencing Congress to abruptly cut off shipments of arms to Batista in 1958 Castro was so appreciative of the journalists efforts to publicize his rebellion that on his first visit to the United States as premier of Cuba he invited the reporters to a private reception at the Cuban Embassy in Washington where he presented them with engraved gold medals While the medals revealed Castro s perception of the correspondents as like minded partisans the journalists themselves had no such intentions Some had journeyed to Cuba in pursuit of scoops that could rejuvenate or jump start their careers others sought to promote press freedom in Latin America still others were simply carrying out assignments from their editors Bringing to light the disparate motives and experiences of the thirteen journalists who reported on this crucial period in Cuba s history Reporting the Cuban Revolution is both a masterwork of narrative nonfiction and a deft analysis of the tension between propaganda and objectivity in the work of American foreign correspondents Women Heroes of World War II—the Pacific Theater Kathryn J.

Atwood,2016-10-01 After glamorous American singer Claire Phillips opened her own night club in Manila using the proceeds to secretly feed starving American POWs she also began working as a spy chatting up Japanese military men and passing their secrets along to local guerilla resistance fighters Australian Army nurse Vivian Bullwinkel stationed in Singapore then shipwrecked in the Dutch East Indies became the sole survivor of a horrible massacre by Japanese soldiers She hid for days tending to a seriously wounded British soldier while wounded herself Humanitarian Elizabeth Choy lived the rest of her life hating only war not her tormentors after enduring six months of starvation and torture by the Japanese military police In these pages readers will meet these and other courageous women and girls who risked their lives through their involvement in the Pacific Theater of Operations during World War II Fifteen suspense filled stories unfold across China Japan Mayala Singapore the Dutch East Indies and the Philippines providing an inspiring reminder of women and girls refusal to sit on the sidelines around the world and throughout history These women whose stories span from 1932 through 1945 the last year of the war when U S Marines landed on Iwo Jima served in dangerous roles as spies medics journalists resisters and saboteurs Nine of the women were American seven were captured and imprisoned by the Japanese enduring brutal conditions Author Kathryn J Atwood provides appropriate context and framing for teens 14 and up to grapple with these harsh realities of war Discussion questions and a guide for further study assist readers and educators in learning about this important and often neglected period of history War and Press Freedom Jeffery A. Smith,1999-02-25 War and Press Freedom The Problem of Prerogative Power is a groundbreaking and provocative study of one of the most perplexing civil liberties issues in American history What authority does or should the government have to control press coverage and commentary in wartime First Amendment scholar Jeffery A Smith shows convincingly that no such extraordinary power exists under the Constitution and that officials have had to rely on claiming the existence of an autocratic higher law of survival Smith carefully surveys the development of statutory restrictions and military regulations for the news media from the ratification of the Bill of Rights in 1791 through the Gulf War of 1991 He concludes that the armed forces can justify refusal to divulge a narrow range of defense secrets but that imposing other restrictions is unwise unnecessary and unconstitutional In any event as electronic communication becomes almost impossible to constrain soldiers and journalists must learn how to respect each other s obligations in a democratic system On Their Own Joyce Hoffmann,2008-06-24 Staring back into another time Called to the colors Going against the grain Challenging the conventional wisdom Foreign journalists report the war The war on television A force of nature A place in history Killing for Show Julian Stallabrass,2020-10-30 See firsthand how war photography is used to sway public opinion In the autumn of 2014 the Royal Air Force released blurry video of a missile blowing up a pick up truck which may have had a weapon attached to its flatbed This was a lethal form of gesture politics to send a 9 million bomber from Cyprus to Iraq and back burning 35 000 an hour in fuel to launch a smart missile costing 100 000 to destroy a truck or rather to create a video that shows it being destroyed Some lives are ended it is impossible to tell whose so that the government can pretend that it taking effective action by creating a high budget snuff movie This is killing for show Since the Vietnam War the way we see conflict through film photographs and pixels has had a powerful impact on the political fortunes of the campaign and the way that war has been conducted In this fully illustrated and passionately argued account of war imagery Julian Stallabrass tells the story of post war conflict how it was recorded and remembered through its iconic photography The relationship between war and photograph is constantly in transition forming new perspectives provoking new challenges what is allowed to be seen Does an image have the power to change political opinion How are images used to wage war Stallabrass shows how photographs have become a vital weapon in the modern war as propaganda from close quarters fighting to the drone s electronic vision as well as a witness to the barbarity of events such as the My Lai massacre the violent suppression of insurgent Fallujah or the atrocities in Abu Ghraib Through these accounts Stallabrass maps a comprehensive theoretical re evaluation of the relationship between war politics and visual culture Killing for Show offers 190 photographs encompassing photojournalism artists images photographs by soldiers and amateurs and dronesA comprehensive comparison of the role of photography in the Vietnam and Iraq WarsAn explanation of the waning power of iconic images in collective memoryAn analysis of the failure of military PR and the public display of killingA focus on what can and cannot be seen photographed and publishedAn exploration of the power and limits of amateur photographyArguments about how violent images act on democracy This full color book is an essential volume in the history of warfare and photography
