

Embers and Keys

when I am older
I might not remember
I may get confused and I might lose my temper and there may be times when I don't know your name because it's been trapped, locked away in my brain and though it will hurt to think I could forget you, offer me smiles, hold my hand if I'll let you and speak of adventures we had long ago,

show me the photos of people I know

play music we've danced to and songs we have sung read me the books I read when I was young

'cause your voice and your words might just be the key that opens the door,
that unlocks it for me and maybe the music will spark tiny embers of memories dormant and I will remember your name and your face and the words to our song, the times and the places to which I've belonged and it might last moments or minutes or more as the fire sheds light through the crack in the door but when the door closes and gone are the flames, when you are once more a stranger again

just know you'll have stirred something deep down inside something familiar that I recognise something I feel that's not stored in my head

of my heart space instead something that's stirred by your smiles and your stories, the touch of your hand and the songs you sing for me and though I'll have no words to tell you just trust that deep down inside I'll remember

I'm loved
