The Millenarian World of Early Mormonism Grant Underwood,1993 This book provides the most detailed study yet of early Mormon thought about the end times Underwood shows how Mormonism from 1830 to 1846 was profoundly influenced by its views of an imminent second coming of Christ and millennial transformation of the earth In particular the book explores the ways in which early LDS interpretation of the Bible and the Book of Mormon affected and was affected by Mormon millennial doctrines The book represents the first comprehensive linkage of the history of early Mormonism and millennial thought areas in which before now cross pollination has been occasional at best The author also places Mormon millennial thought in the broader context of Judeo Christian ideas about the end of the world He shows for instance how Mormons rejected the predominant nineteenth century American view that religious revivals and foreign missions rather than the personal return of Christ would usher in the millennium Probing LDS perceptions of the institutions and values prevalent before the Civil War Underwood demonstrates how the early Mormons actually were quite moderate contrary to earlier views of them as countercultural or even revolutionary In fact Underwood points out the Mormons are an excellent example of a millenarian group that could level a withering critique at the world around them yet remain very much a part of the dominant culture Chemical, Color and Oil Record ,1930 The Devil on Screen Charles P. Mitchell,2002 The Devil has been represented in many film genres including horror comedy the musical fantasy satire drama and the religious epic and in these works has assumed many shapes and forms This work explores in detail feature films from the year 1913 through the year 2000 that depict the Devil It begins with an overview that discusses how the devil has been portrayed on stage how that portrayal carried over to the big screen and what are the standard elements of a satanic plot Each entry in the filmography includes such particulars as the year of production running time and the names of the writer editor cinematographer producer and director An evaluative rating annotated cast list plot synopsis and film appraisal are also provided for each film as well as a spotlight on the performance of the actor playing the role of Satan Proceedings of the 34th Forum on the Geology of Industrial Minerals, 1998 ,1999 British & Irish Archaeological Bibliography ,1998 The
