given Each of these is critically analyzed in some detail while shorter comments are made on many other pictures not reproduced The hundred pictures reproduced and the others mentioned are not proposed as the best pictures in Europe in any absolute sense A list of that sort would be largely an expression of the author s personal preference and it might well be restricted to the works of some ten or twenty supremely great artists The standard of selection here has been not only quality but variety to give a broadly representative list including typical works not only of the greatest artists but of many minor ones each unique and interesting in his own way Even among the hundred pictures reproduced and analyzed at length are examples not only of the well known European masters and schools such as the Florentine and Dutch but of the less familiar primitive and exotic types such as ancient Roman Byzantine Chinese and Persian all distinctive and important for a broad appreciation of art The book will thus be useful it is hoped not only as a guide book for travellers but for students in this country as a critical survey of the main types and traditions in the history of art
