Evaluation of World Bank Programs in Afghanistan 2002-11 The World Bank, World Bank. Independent Evaluation Group, 2013-08 Despite extremely difficult security conditions which deteriorated markedly after 2006 the World Bank Group has commendably established and sustained a large program of support to the country While World Bank Group strategy has been highly relevant to Afghanistan's situation beginning in 2006 the strategies can have gone further in adapting ongoing programs to evolving opportunities and needs and in programming activities sufficient to achieve the objectives of the pillars in those strategies The Bank Group's direct financial assistance has been augmented effectively by analytic and advisory activities and donor coordination through the Afghanistan reconstruction trust fund Knowledge services have been an important part of Bank Group support and have demonstrated the value of strategic analytical work even in areas where the Bank Group may opt out of direct project financing To enhance program effectiveness the evaluation recommends that the World Bank Group help the government develop a comprehensive long term human resources strategy for the civilian sectors focus on strategic analytical work in sectors that are high priorities for the government assist in the development of local government institutions and in the interim support the development of a viable system for service delivery at subnational levels assist in transforming the national solidarity program into a more sustainable financial and institutional model to consolidate its gains help strengthen the regulatory environment for private sector investment and scale up International Finance Corporation IFC and Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency MIGA support to the private sector
