Agatha Christie Gillian Gill, 2016-12-08. In this sensitive and revealing biography of Agatha Christie, Gillian Gill probes the mysterious private life and motivations of one of the bestselling authors of all time and discovers a brilliant and eccentric woman whose passionate search for success was balanced by an obsession with privacy. The break-up of Agatha's first marriage to Archibald Christie and her subsequent ten-day disappearance had made headline news. Feeling hunted and wounded by the press, Christie determined never again to let them into her private life. Instead, she developed a public persona, seemingly tongue-tied and dull, which ensured the journalists and the public would let her be. This successful strategy helped to account for a happy second marriage and family life, as well as an astonishing literary productivity. Skillfully weaving the details of Christie's life with the plots and characters of her mystery novels, Gillian Gill uncovers the flesh-and-blood woman behind the popular and celebrated Marple-like image and establishes Agatha Christie as a unique and determined person whose fictional creations sparked the imagination of millions around the world.

Giant's Bread Mary Westmacott, 1975. The Ministry of the Word, Vol. 02, No. 10 Various Authors, 2023-03-03. This issue of The Ministry contains the third and fourth messages given by Brother Lee to the co-workers in Southern California in September 1996. These messages comprise a timely loving warning from our brother to beware of four destructive matters: ambition, pride, self-justification, and exposing others' failures and defects, and not conforming to the death of Christ. Trouble after trouble has come to the Lord's recovery over the years simply because of these four matters. But if we will deal with these four matters, the Lord's recovery will immediately have a revival. In addition to dealing with these four matters, we must also be right in following others. In actuality, our leading is not a person but the divine truth, the divine vision. Consequently, our following others must be according to the divine truth and the divine vision. The next three messages in this issue are the concluding messages of the Living Stream Ministry's Summer Training of 1998 on the Crystallization study of the Epistle to the Hebrews. Message Ten emphasizes the crucial matter of the dividing of soul and spirit for the experience of the reality of the Sabbath rest. Message Eleven indicates strongly that in order for the believers to be brought on to maturity (Heb. 6:1), we must progress from the word of the beginning of Christ, the milk, to the word of righteousness, the solid food. Message Twelve, as a conclusion to the summer training, stresses the critical need of being transformed and of being matured. To be transformed is to be metabolically changed in our natural life, whereas to be matured is to be filled with the divine life that changes us. We need to go on to be brought on to maturity by forgetting the things which are behind and stretching forward to the things which are before, pursuing toward the fullest enjoyment and gaining of Christ for the uttermost enjoyment of Christ in the millennial kingdom. Ultimately, the Lord's desire to bring us on to maturity must be matched by our willing cooperation with His gracious work. Lastly, we include a report concerning the
