Fashion and Motherhood Laura Snelgrove, 2024-01-25 Motherhood whether achieved through biological or other means is not a rare experience dressing oneself even less so The two phenomena are intimately linked as both occur on and to the private body and are also fully subject to social pressures and the changing tides of public opinion They also for anyone who experiences motherhood define one another and work together to shape an individual's identity and place in their culture This rich collection explores the essential question of how motherhood and fashion interact interrogating their relationships to power misogyny temporality longing and embodiment among other themes The 13 essays examine representations on film in popular print and literature they use images narrative and material evidence from the past to excavate the historical cleavages in how mothers have been expected to hide display share and sacrifice their bodies An international range of scholars explores the 19th to the 21st centuries tracing how fashion and motherhood have operated as powerfully interdependent experiences and continue to determine how women are judged and corralled yet also find meaning connection and strength

Fashion and Feeling Roberto Filippello, Ilya Parkins, 2023-05-16 Fashion and Feeling The Affective Politics of Dress explores the complex nexus of fashion and the feeling body from a variety of critical perspectives across fashion studies anthropology sociology design practice and media studies It asks such questions as What does fashion look and feel like in an age dominated by amplified anxiety isolation depression and precariousness How are feelings woven into clothing and mobilized through fashion practices in ways that might sustain living with a sense of ongoing crisis Does fashion have the potential to help us reimagine new lifeworlds which might be reinvigorating In other words how is fashion engaging with the bad the good and the ambivalent feelings associated with our personal and collective histories with our troubled political present and with our imagined future Despite such diverse and scattered contributions the potentialities of feeling for the study of fashion are still largely neglected This edited volume seeks to tease out possible avenues of investigation of the clothed body and its representations through the lens of feeling
