Godwin Sideboard:

The Godwin Sideboard John Malcolm, 1985-01-01 With the help of beautiful American Marianne Gray art expert and amateur sleuth Tim Simpson sets out to find a Godwin sideboard and his friend's killer "Biography, Identity and the Modern Interior" Penny Sparke, 2017-07-05 Through a series of case studies from the mid eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first this collection of essays considers the historical insights that ethno auto biographical investigations into the lives of individuals groups and interiors can offer design and architectural historians Established scholars and emerging researchers shed light on the methodological issues that arise from the use of these sources to explore the history of the interior as a site in which everyday life is experienced and performed and the ways in which contemporary architects and interior designers draw on personal and collective histories in their practice Historians and theorists working within a range of disciplinary contexts and historiographical traditions are turning to biography as means of exploring and accounting for social cultural and material change and this volume reflects that turn representing the fields of architectural and design history social history literary history creative writing and design practice Topics include masters and servants in eighteenth century English kitchens the lost interiors of Oscar Wilde's House Beautiful Elsa Schiaparelli's Surrealist spaces Jean Genet outlaws and the interiors of marginality and architect Lina Bo Bardi's Glass House S Paulo Brazil The Grove

Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts Gordon Campbell, 2006-11-09 The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts covers thousands of years of decorative arts production throughout western and non western culture With over 1 000 entries as well as hundreds drawn from the 34 volume Dictionary of Art this topical collection is a valuable resource for those interested in the history practice and mechanics of the decorative arts Accompanied by almost 100 color and more than 500 black and white illustrations the 1 290 pages of this title include hundreds of entries on artists and craftsmen the qualities and historic uses of materials as well as concise definitions on art forms and style Explore the works of Alvar Aalto Charles and Ray Eames and the Wiener Werkstatte or delve into the history of Navajo blankets and wing chairs in thousands of entries on artists craftsmen designers workshops and decorative art forms The Year Dave Barter, 2015-10-08 In 1939 British cyclist Tommy Godwin cycled 75 065 miles in a single year Think about that for a second that's an average of over 200 miles each day And it's a mark that still stands after almost eighty years In The Year Dave Barter resurrects the legend of the year record a challenge nearly as old as bicycles themselves and the cyclists who pushed themselves to establish and break it Barter uncovers the stories behind these riders who would routinely cycle over a hundred miles a day in the race to set new records Americans such as John H George who recorded over 200 centuries nineteen double centuries and three triple centuries in the late 1800s The British advertising executive Harry Long whose annual tallies of over 20 000 miles in the early twentieth century led to the founding of the formal cycling year record and Cycling magazine's Century Competition The Englishman of French descent Marcel Planes whose 1911 record of 34 366 miles stood for over twenty years Not forgetting the legends of the job seeking Arthur Humbles the one armed vegetarian communist Walter Greaves the keep fit girl Billie Dovey and the staggering mark set by Godwin who left a youthful Bernard Bennett trailing in his wake Meticulous research through the annuals archives and news stories of the bicycling world is backed up with insights from the families of these legendary cyclists as well as Dave s own analysis of the riders years in numbers There is no more difficult challenge in cycling The Year is the definitive story of these phenomenal cyclists

In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau and even the rise of modernism In fact the early history of the Metropolitan its founding its sponsorship of a school of industrial design and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals In Pursuit of Beauty Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects including furniture metalwork stained glass ceramics textiles wallpaper painting and sculpture Some of these had rarely been displayed others although familiar were being shown in new and even startling contexts The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity From publisher s description

War On Wealth, The: Fact And Fiction In British Finance Since 1800 Ranald Michie,2023-03-21 This book addresses the divide that exists between the reality of finance and the image it projects A functioning financial system is an essential feature of a modern economy providing it with money credit capital and investments Conversely those who provide this essential service are neither respected nor trusted The causes and consequences of this divide is explored using the British experience from 1800 to the present drawing upon a mixture of factual evidence and contemporary fiction Nothing of this scale has been attempted before and this is the product of 50 years of research

Total Design Dorothy Spencer,1991 Many of the great architectural innovators of the 20th century Charles Rennie Mackintosh Frank Lloyd Wright Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Walter Gropius Le Corbusier Eero Saarinen Greene and Greene and Robert Venturi among others have been drawn to the concept of total design a comprehensive approach where interiors and exteriors are designed together as complete architectural works That tradition is the subject of this volume which traces the history of this interdisciplinary concept from its 19th century British adherents the arts and crafts movement via De Stijl the Bauhaus functionalism and the beginnings of postmodernism to the new directions taken by contemporary architects
