Morrissey, 1978 Gulliver's Travels Jonathan Swift, 2011-01-14 Includes the unabridged text of Swift's classic novel plus a complete study guide that features chapter by chapter summaries explanations and discussions of the plot question and answer sections author biography historical background and more Gulliver's Travels (MAXNotes Literature Guides) Stephen Stertz, 2013-01-01 REA's MAXnotes for Jonathan Swift's Gulliver's Travels MAXnotes offer a fresh look at masterpieces of literature presented in a lively and interesting fashion Written by literary experts who currently teach the subject MAXnotes will enhance your understanding and enjoyment of the work MAXnotes are designed to stimulate independent thought about the literary work by raising various issues and thought provoking ideas and questions MAXnotes cover the essentials of what one should know about each work including an overall summary character lists an explanation and discussion of the plot the work's historical context illustrations to convey the mood of the work and a biography of the author Each chapter is individually summarized and analyzed and has study questions and answers In Search of the Classic Steven Shankman, 2010-11 The classical Steven Shankman argues should not be confused with a particular historical period of Western antiquity although it may owe its original articulation to the literary and philosophical explorations of ancient Greek authors Shankman's book searches for and attempts to formulate the shape of the continuing presence as embodied in particular literary works mainly from Western antiquity and the neoclassical and modern periods of what the author calls a classical understanding of literature For Shankman literature defined from a classical perspective is a coherent compelling and rationally defensible representation that resists being reduced either to the mere recording of material reality or to the bare exemplification of an abstract philosophical precept He derives his definition largely from his reading of Greek literature from Homer through Plato from the history of literary criticism and from the Greco Roman tradition in English American and French literature Shankman reveals unsuspected yet convincing connections among authors of such widely disparate times and places His idea of the classic that authorizes these connections is presented as normative thus making possible the evaluation of literary works and in turn forthright discussion of what constitutes the literary as distinct from other kinds of discourse Shankman's study runs counter to a strong tendency of contemporary criticism that argues precisely against any distinct category of the literary He offers a series of interpretations that cumulatively advance theoretical discussion by challenging scholars to rethink the critical paradigms of postmodernism At the center of the book is a discussion of the quintessentially classic Valéry poem Le Cimetière marin and the classic qualities it shares with Pindar's third Pythian ode from which Valéry derives the epigraph for his poem
