Serving Young Teens and 'Tweens Sheila B. Anderson, 2006-11-30 Notable teen experts and stellar practitioners from across the country explain why library service to adolescents in this age range is so important and how you can enhance your collection and services to accommodate and win over this important group Topics range from understanding adolescent informational needs and building and promoting a winning collection to creating programs with tween appeal Contributors include Sheila B Anderson James Rosinia Deb Taylor Robyn Lupa and Kristine Mahood Brimming with valuable insights and fresh ideas as well as nuts and bolts directions this is a must read for all librarians who work with young adolescents If someone is described as a young adult what image comes to mind In fact a young adult can be a twelve year old middle schooler or a high school graduate Libraries have traditionally offered a variety programs and services for YAs and although more emphasis has been given to serving teens in recent years little has been done to distinguish between groups within the category and meet the specific developmental needs of this broad range of library users This collection complements

Anderson's previous collection Serving Older Teens by focusing on the needs of tweens and young teens ages 11-14. This is the age range when many young people stop using the library and lose interest in reading. Notable teen experts and stellar practitioners from across the country explain why service to adolescents in this age range is so important and how you can enhance your collection and services to accommodate and win over this important group. Topics range from understanding adolescent informational needs and building and promoting a winning collection to creating programs with tween appeal. Contributors include Sheila Anderson, James Rosinia, Deb Taylor, Robyn Lupa, Brenda Hager, and Kristine Mahood. Brimming with valuable insights and fresh ideas, as well as nuts and bolts directions, this is a must-read for all librarians who work with young adolescents.

Ross, executive director of Parenting Horizons, shows you exactly what's going on with your child and provides all the tools you need to correctly handle even the prickliest tween porcupine. Find out how other parents survived nightmarish tween behavior and still raised great kids. Break the nagging cycle, give your kids responsibilities, and get results. Talk about sex, drugs, and alcohol so your kid will listen. Discover the secret that will help your child to disregard peer pressure and make smart choices for life.
