Ethical Exploration in a Multifaith Society Catherine Shelley, 2017-03-24 This book considers the theory and application of ethics for a multifaith society Much ethics taught in the UK has been dominated by Christian ethics their relation to secularism and by the Enlightenment's reaction against theology as a basis for ethical thought In contrast to these perspectives this book brings secular and theological ethics into dialogue considering the degree to which secular ethics has common roots with theological perspectives from various traditions The book assesses the application of ethical and theological principles in today's multifaith society Aiming to enhance ethical understanding and awareness across divergent worldviews identifying at what points divergence does occur the author examines topics such as reason and ethics in theology natural law utilitarianism and deontology and differences of approach to interpreting religious scriptures The focus on ethical methods is illustrated through topical concerns in religion and ethics for example sexuality marriage and education and religion in relation to global ethics and human rights

Scripture and Song in Nineteenth-Century Britain James Grande, Brian H. Murray, 2023-11-16 This volume brings together new approaches to music history to reveal the interdependence of music and religion in nineteenth century culture As composers and performers drew inspiration from the Bible and new historical sciences called into question the historicity of Scripture controversies raged over the performance publication and censorship of old and new musical forms From oratorio to opera from parlour song to pantomime and from hymn to broadside nineteenth century Britons continually encountered elements of the biblical past in song Both elite and popular music came to play a significant role in the formation regulation and contestation of religious and cultural identity and were used to address questions of class nation and race leading to the beginnings of ethnomusicology This richly interdisciplinary volume brings together musicologists historians literary and art historians and theologians to reveal points of intersection between music religion and cultural history
