Dictionary of Globalization Andrew Jones, 2006-09-07 Publisher description The Globalization and Development Reader J. Timmons Roberts, Amy Bellone Hite, Nitsan Chorev, 2014-12-31 This revised and updated second edition of The Globalization and Development Reader builds on the considerable success of a first edition that has been used around the world. It combines selected readings and editorial material to provide a coherent text with global coverage reflecting new theoretical and empirical developments. Main text and core reference for students and professionals studying the processes of social change and development in third world countries. Carefully excerpted materials facilitate the understanding of classic and contemporary writings. Second edition includes 33 essential readings including 21 new selections. New pieces cover the impact of the recession in the global North, global inequality and uneven development, gender, international migration, the role of cities, agriculture and on the governance of pharmaceuticals and climate change politics. Increased coverage of China and India help to provide genuinely global coverage and for a student readership the materials have been subject to a higher degree of editing in the new edition. Includes a general introduction to the field and short insightful section introductions to each reading. New readings include selections by Alexander Gershenkron, Alice Amsden, Amartya Sen, Anne Marie Slaughter, Cecile Jackson, Dani Rodrik, David Harvey, Greta Krippner, Kathryn Sikkink, Leslie Sklair, Margaret E. Keck, Michael Burawoy, Nitsan Chorev, Oscar Lewis, Patrick Bond, Peter Evans, Philip McMichael, Pranab Bardhan, Ruth Pearson, Sarah Babb, Saskia Sassen and Steve Radelet. Global Media, Culture, and Identity Rohit

Chopra, Radhika Gajjala, 2012-10-02 This edited volume examines the ways that global media shapes relations between place, culture and identity. Through the included essays, Chopra and Gajjala offer a mix of theoretical reflections and empirical case studies that will help readers understand how the media can shape cultural identities and conversely how cultural formations can influence the political economy of global media. The interdisciplinary international scholars gathered here push the discussion of what it means to do global media studies beyond uncritical celebrations of the global media technologies or globalization as well as beyond perspectives that are a priori dismissive of the possibilities of global media. Some of the key questions and themes that the international contributors explore within the text include: Is the global audience of global television the same as the global audience of the internet? Can we conceptualize the global culture media identity dynamic beyond the discourse of postcolonialism? How does the globalization of media affect feelings of nationalism? How is the growth of a consumer global middle class spread and resisted through media? Global Media Identity and Culture takes a comparative media approach to addressing these and other issues across media forms including print, television, film and new media.

Globalisation Danilo Zolo, 2007 Abstract Pentecostalism and Globalization Steven M. Studebaker, 2010-09-20 In little over a century the Pentecostal movement has emerged from small bands of revival seekers to become one of the largest Christian groups in the world. Primarily a movement within Western Christianity for much of its brief history it is increasingly characterized as a global movement. Pentecostal theology and ministry in a Western context must engage global Pentecostalism and be willing to rethink its traditional patterns of thought and practice in light of the evolving nature of the movement The essays in this book come mainly from the McMaster Divinity College 2008 Pentecostal Forum The Many Faces of Pentecostalism Pentecostalism and Globalization The first section outlines the nature of globalization and establishes it as the context for contemporary Pentecostal theology and ministry The other contributions explore the impact of globalization on traditional areas of Pentecostal theology such as Spirit baptism and speaking in tongues and twenty first century Pentecostal ministry
