

A woman with her body covered in vibrant, multi-colored paint (red, blue, yellow, green) is shown in profile, looking upwards with her hands raised towards a bright, glowing light source. The background is a textured, abstract composition of warm and cool colors, suggesting a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The overall mood is one of awe and spiritual connection.

Ecstatic Transformation M. Uebel, 2016-04-30 This book studies the way in which medieval ways of knowing the Oriental other were constructed around the idea of a utopic East as located in the legend and Letter of Prester John c 1160 The birth of utopic thinking it argues is tied to an understanding of alterity having as much to do with the ways the medieval West understood itself as the manner in which the foreign was mapped Drawing upon the insights of cultural studies film studies and psychoanalysis this book rethinks the contours of the known and the unknown in the medieval period It demonstrates how the idea of otherness intersected in intricate ways with other categories of difference spatial gender and religious Scholars in the fields of history as well as literary and religious studies will be interested in the manner in which the book considers the formal dimensions of how histories of the Oriental other were written and lived Ecstatic Transformation Ulrike Wiethaus, 1996 This work analyses ecstasies and visions in the work of the medieval German mystic Mechthild of Magdeburg 1208 1282 and compares and contrasts it with contemporary psychological models of altered states of consciousness Zombies, Werewolves, Robots, and Extraterrestrials Gerald Large, 2026-03-13 Zombies Werewolves Robots and Extraterrestrials provides a broad survey of acting theory and training technique through the lens of the performance of non human characters found in horror and science fiction film television and theatre Specifically the book examines the performance challenges of undead characters zombies vampires Frankenstein s monster characters that transform from human to non human werewolves human flies Dr Jekyll Mr Hyde and others mechanical creatures robots androids cyborgs and extraterrestrials and then suggests a wide array of training methods to meet each challenge Theories and training methods are taken from Michael Chekhov Vsevolod Meyerhold Antonin Artaud Jerzy Grotowski German Expressionist dance Tadashi Suzuki Lev Kuleshov Jacques Copeau and Jacques Lecoq Bertolt Brecht Fran ois Delsarte and others Each chapter includes numerous actor training exercises of each technique journaling opportunities for self reflection and lists of films to watch and books to read to further one s knowledge This book is an excellent resource for actors acting teachers and both academic and professional directors with an interest in broadening their knowledge of actor training and their skill base as both students and working professionals Contextualizing the Muslim Other in Medieval Christian Discourse J. Standing Under the Cross focuses on Bonhoeffer s rich theological and ethical thinking It places Bonhoeffer in conversation with a wide range of modern theologians including Karl Barth Franz Rosenzweig J rgen Moltmann and James Cone The book gives particular attention to hermeneutics the body and Bonhoeffer s rich reflections on community and discipleship Mawson attends to the complex ways in which these aspects of Bonhoeffer s thinking work together and shows how they can assist us in responding to some of the challenges confronting us today Medieval Holy Women and the Desire for Death Jessica Barr,2026-02-15

Medieval Holy Women and the Desire for Death investigates the tension between death as necessary for bringing about union with God and as the end of life on earth For medieval Christians only death could offer complete union with God For medieval women in particular death was figured as a desirable end to their embodied lives at least this is the story told by the clergymen who typically wrote their biographies Medieval Holy Women and the Desire for Death questions this assumption and studies visionary narratives treatises and spiritual reflections by and about medieval Christian women from the thirteenth through the fifteenth centuries to reveal how these women understood their own deaths and how their depictions conformed to or departed from the stories told about them Rather than focusing on externalities like rituals revenants or miracles Jessica Barr instead tackles the desire for death from the inside seeking to elucidate the ways in which medieval people anticipated or experienced biological death on a personal level In narrating their spiritual lives within the framework of deeply held Christian beliefs these medieval women mystics illustrate how theology and experience converge and not infrequently diverge The London Quarterly Review ,1909 Experientia, Volume 1 Frances Flannery,Colleen Shantz,Rodney Alan Werline,2008 Magic and Mystery Alfred Thompson,1894 Earthographies Wendy Wheeler,Hugh Dunkerley,2008 London Quarterly Review ,1909 Nature's Religion Robert S. Corrington,1997-10-16

In the wake of both the semiotic and the psychoanalytic revolutions how is it possible to describe the object of religious worship in realist terms Semioticians argue that each object is known only insofar as it gives birth to a series of signs and interpretants new signs From the psychoanalytic side religious beliefs are seen to belong to transference energies and projections that contaminate the religious object with all too human complexes In Nature s Religion distinguished theologian and philosopher Robert S Corrington weaves together the concept of infinite semiosis with that of the transference to show that the self does have access to something in nature that is intrinsically religious Corrington argues that signs and our various transference fields can and do connect us with fully natural religious powers that are not of our own making thereby opening up a path past the Western monotheisms to a capacious religion of nature With a foreword by Robert C Neville Nature s Religion is essential reading for philosophers of religion scholars of the psychology of religion and theologians Textbook of

This is a collection of nine short pieces by Wagner selected for their readability and the light they shed on his development as a composer. Father and Son Gavin Keulks, 2003 An innovative study of two of England's most popular controversial and influential writers. Father and Son breaks new ground in examining the relationship between Kingsley Amis and his son Martin Amis. Through intertextual readings of their essays and novels, Gavin Keulks examines how the Amises work negotiated the boundaries of their personal relationship while claiming territory in the literary debate between mimesis and modernist aesthetics. There was a battle over the nature of reality itself, a twentieth-century realism war conducted by loving family members and rival antithetical writers. Keulks argues that the Amises' relationship functioned as a source of literary inspiration and that their work illuminates many of the structural and stylistic shifts that have characterized the British novel since 1950.
